National Teaching School

Manor Primary Teaching School

Outstanding Aspiring Headteacher Programme (Deputy Heads/ Assistant Heads/Heads of School)

To support Deputy Heads, Assistant Headteachers, Aspiring Headteachers working towards Headship, developing characteristics of outstanding leadership, that transforms learning and impacts on outcomes for all learners, led by a highly experienced National Leadership Consultant

Designed by Manor Teaching School and facilitated by an experienced Leadership Consultant. This is a three day programme that supports AHT, Deputies and aspiring Headteachers to develop characteristics, strategies and systems that transform schools.

Overview

This 3 day programme is intended for aspiring senior leaders and includes:

- Exploring the challenges of deputy headship/ AHT
- Exploring three key intelligences of effective senior leadership, seven steps to success and a leadership tool box
- Making the shift differences to middle leadership in the school you lead
- Key skills and attributes of effective senior leaders
- Drive for excellence and clarity of direction
- Leading effective change
- Creating a climate for change, understanding resistance and managing it effectively
- Coaching for excellence in others

Dates 2017

Spring Term 2017

17th January
28th February
28th March
(All session 8.45a.m. – 3.30p.m. Including refreshments and lunch)

Cost of Outstanding Aspiring Headteacher Programme: £400

CONTACT:
Sue Pickering, Schools Liaison Manager, Manor Primary Teaching School, Wolverhampton
Telephone: 01902 556460 Email: manorprimaryschool@wolverhampton.gov.uk